

DuPage Homeownership Center Privacy Policy

The DuPage Homeownership Center (DHOC) is committed to protecting the privacy of donors and users of our website.

Information Collection: Through this website, DHOC collects information such as names, email addresses and phone numbers from individuals registering for our programs. DHOC keeps this information confidential and uses it to facilitate your program registration and delivery of requested services.

As a HUD-certified housing counseling agency, DHOC's records may be examined by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development as part of their monitoring of our operations.

DHOC also collects information from donors such as names, addresses, email addresses and phone numbers. DHOC uses this information to complete the transaction, to communicate back to you and to update you on DHOC activities. This information is kept confidential and DHOC does not share donor information with other organizations. You may contact us as noted below for additional information or to have your information updated or removed from our records.

Processing Payments: All donations via DHOC's website are processed on PayPal. Information regarding their policies is available at https://cms.paypal.com/cgi-bin/marketingweb?cmd=render-content&content_ID=ua/Privacy_full&locale.x=en_US.

Disclaimer: The information provided on DHOC's website is of a general nature and should be used for information purposes.

Links: DHOC may provide links to other sites on our website. DHOC makes no claims or warranties and assumes no responsibility for the content or security of those websites.

Contact for Inquiries: If you would like additional information about DHOC's privacy policies, if you do not wish to receive contacts from DHOC, or if you would like to request that DHOC update or remove any of your information from our records, please contact Dru Bergman at (630) 260-2500, ext. 2502 or dru@dhoc.org.